

STILTON PARISH COUNCIL CO-OPTION POLICY & PROCEDURE

The Co-option of a Parish Councillor occurs when a casual vacancy has arisen on the Council and no poll (by- election) has been called.

To ensure that a fair and transparent process is undertaken the following procedure will be followed by Stilton Parish Council:

1. On receipt, of written confirmation, from the Electoral Services Office at Huntingdon District Council, the casual vacancy can be filled by means of Co-option, the Parish Clerk will:
  - a. Advertise the vacancy for 4 weeks on the Council notice boards and website.
  - b. Advise the council that the Co-option Policy has been instigated, by sending an email to all Councillors.
2. Applicants for co-option will be asked to:
  - a. Submit information about themselves, by way of completing a short application form.
  - b. Confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor within the statutory rules.
3. Copies of the applicant's application form will be circulated to all Councillors by the Clerk at least three clear days prior to the meeting of the Council, when the Co-option will be considered. All such documents will be treated by the Clerk and all Councillors as Strictly Private and Confidential.
4. At the meeting, the press and public will be asked to leave the meeting, in order for the applications to be considered.
5. After due consideration, the Council may decide to defer their decision to allow all qualified applicants to attend the subsequent meeting of the Parish Council if they feel it would be beneficial.
6. The Council can choose to not co-opt from the available applicants and re-advertise the vacant position.
7. If the Council decide not to defer or re-advertise the Chairman will reconvene the meeting and it will be reopened to the public and press and voting takes place.
8. If the decision is deferred or the Council choose to re-advertise the Chairman will reconvene the meeting and move on to the next agenda item.
9. The Council may choose who they like but the person must be qualified to be a candidate.
10. If there are more candidates than vacancies a vote will be taken.
11. Voting will be according to the statutory requirements, in that, a successful candidate must have received an absolute majority vote of those present and voting.
12. If there is more than one vacancy, a councillor may nominate one person per seat. Each councillor will have only one vote per seat i.e. two vacancies will enable two votes, one per candidate.

- a. If at the first count, no candidate receives a majority over the aggregate votes given to the rest, steps must be taken to strike off the candidate with the least number of votes and the remainder must then be put to the vote again; this process must, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained.
  - b. If two candidates poll the same number of votes a separate vote to eliminate one of them will be held.
13. Voting will continue with the lowest polling candidate being excluded until the number of candidates matches the number of vacancies.
  14. The candidate(s) will then be duly elected.
  15. Councillors shall vote by show of hands, or, if at least two members so request, by signed ballot.
  16. If any member so requires, the Clerk shall record the names of members who voted on any question so as to show whether they voted for, against, or abstained.
  17. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
  18. Only Councillors present at the full council meeting may nominate, second or vote upon a person to fill the vacancy.
  19. If no single candidate receives a majority on the first vote, then the candidate with the least number of votes will be eliminated and voting will take place on the remainder. This process must, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained.
  - 20.
  21. The first candidate to receive an absolute majority of those present and voting will be duly elected.
  22. After the vote has been concluded, this business is concluded when the Chairman declares that the successful candidate is duly elected. The successful candidate is then declared co-opted to the Council and summoned to attend the next council meeting.
  23. The Clerk will advise the Monitoring Officer of Huntingdon District Council of the names of anyone co-opted to the Council.
  24. The Parish Clerk is responsible for providing each new councillor with an induction, a new councillors pack and should ensure that all new councillors have read and understood the Code of Conduct and the Standing Orders adopted by the Council.
  25. Before the successful candidate can participate in Council business s/he must sign the Declaration of Acceptance of Office and deliver it to the Clerk. The individual will be summonsed to attend the next full council meeting where s/he will sign the Declaration.
  26. The unsuccessful candidates will be contacted by the Clerk. Unsuccessful candidates may reapply for future vacancies.

27. All new councillors must, within 28 days of appointment to office, register their Interests with the District Council Monitoring Officer. Usually forms are supplied by the Monitoring Officers to the Clerk.

28. The Council is not obliged to provide feedback on the application process to unsuccessful candidates.
